

On Sunday, December 20, 2009, at approximately 2:15 A.M., an off-duty officer in her personal vehicle observed a L/M/28 suspect driving erratically and finally coming to a stop in the apartment complex at 14500 Dallas North Parkway. The officer called 911 for police assistance when the suspect exited the vehicle. The officer identified herself as a Dallas Police Officer in both English and Spanish. The suspect charged her and a physical altercation occurred. During the struggle the suspect attempted to take her weapon. As the struggle continued the officer fired her weapon at the suspect striking him two times.

The suspect was injured and transported to Parkland Hospital.

Suspect used his hands in an attempt to take the officers weapon.

Suspect was charged with DWI and Attempt to take Peace Officers Weapon.

One officer was injured.

One officer fired 2 rounds. Involved Officer: L/F/ 1 year, 6 months service.