

On Tuesday, November 24, 2009, at approximately 10:20 P.M., a plainclothes deployment officer working in plainclothes, also wearing a vest with the word "Police" in large white letters, driving an unmarked vehicle, heard information over the police radio regarding an Aggravated Robbery offense that had just occurred involving a B/M/29 suspect. The detective observed the suspect running on foot and pursued the suspect to 5716 Winton Street. The suspect stopped by a fence, with his arm raised and pointed at the officer and stating, "I am going to kill you". The detective fired his weapon at the suspect striking him one time.

The suspect was injured and transported to Parkland Hospital.

Suspect weapon was unarmed.

Suspect was charged with Aggravated Robbery.

No officer was injured.

One officer fired 3 rounds. Involved Officer: W/M/ 7 years, 6 months service.