

On Thursday, March 15, 2012, at approximately 4:40 P.M., uniformed patrol officers in a marked vehicles responded to an animal disturbance call at 400 S. Llewellyn Avenue. Officers observed two pit bull dogs acting aggressive towards a citizen. As one of the officers exited his vehicle one of the pit-bull dogs attacked him and bit him on the leg. The dog then attacked the officer a second time. The officer fired his weapon striking a dog. The bullet also ricocheted off the street and struck the citizen. Both the citizen and officer were transported to the hospital for treatment.

One officer fired one shot. Involved Officer: W/M 8 years, 3 months service.